Planned to 'Scare Pants Off' Reds

'Anti-Leftist' Air Raids In Miami Laid to Veteran

MIAMI, Nov. 24 (UPI)-A, that go off with a loud bang 30-year-old Air Force veteran and a flash would literally was charged today with firebombing Negro and Jewish residential areas from a small let them know somebody was airplane to "scare the pants doing something about it," he off" left-wing agitators.

"I didn't plan to hurt anyone or hit any houses," Lon David Shaw told investigators for the Dade County sheriff's houses in mind but was aimoffice after his arrest.

the fire bombings, all at night, at work. but officers said damage was "extensive."

cocktail" devices were tossed rental agencies, officers said, from a low-flying plane by they were able to pinpoint Shaw, a former Air Force en-Shaw as the man who had listed man who said he learned rented planes on all the nights flying after he left the service of the bombings. in 1957.

scare the Communists who smoke. They said they found were instigating riots planned no indication that he was a for several occasions in this member of any political area," the handcuffed Shaw groups. They had no comment told UPI.

"Throwing these scare the pants off them and Officers said Shaw apparently did not have any specific ing at neighborhoods where There were no injuries in he believed "agitators" were

They said they caught up with Shaw after a Nov. 16 They said the "Molotov bombing. By checking plane

The officers said Shaw is "The basic reason was to single and doesn't drink or when asked if there might be devices other arrests.